

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.

Mary Cassatt

(kuh-SAHT) - American 1844-1926

was determined to make art her career. She moved to France and eventually joined the Impressionists. As a suffragette she worked for women's rights. After 1900 Cassatt concentrated almost exclusively on painting mother-and-child subjects.