

Winslow Homer

Seesaw - Gloucester, Massachusetts, Woodcut on newsprint, 1955

Winslow Homer

A Boston Watering-Cart, 1857

Winslow Homer

The Boston Common, 1858

August in the Country - The Sea-Shore, 1859

Winslow Homer

Winslow Homer

Skating on the Ladies' Skating Pond in Central Park, New York, 1860

Winslow Homer

A Snow Slide in the City, 1860

HARPER'S WEEKLY

JOURNAL OF CIVILIZATION

Vol. V.—No. 125.] NEW YORK, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1861.

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY-EIGHT

CENTS

FOR THE WEEKLY EDITION.

INTERVIEW WITH L. A. STODDARD, CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE UNION ARMY.

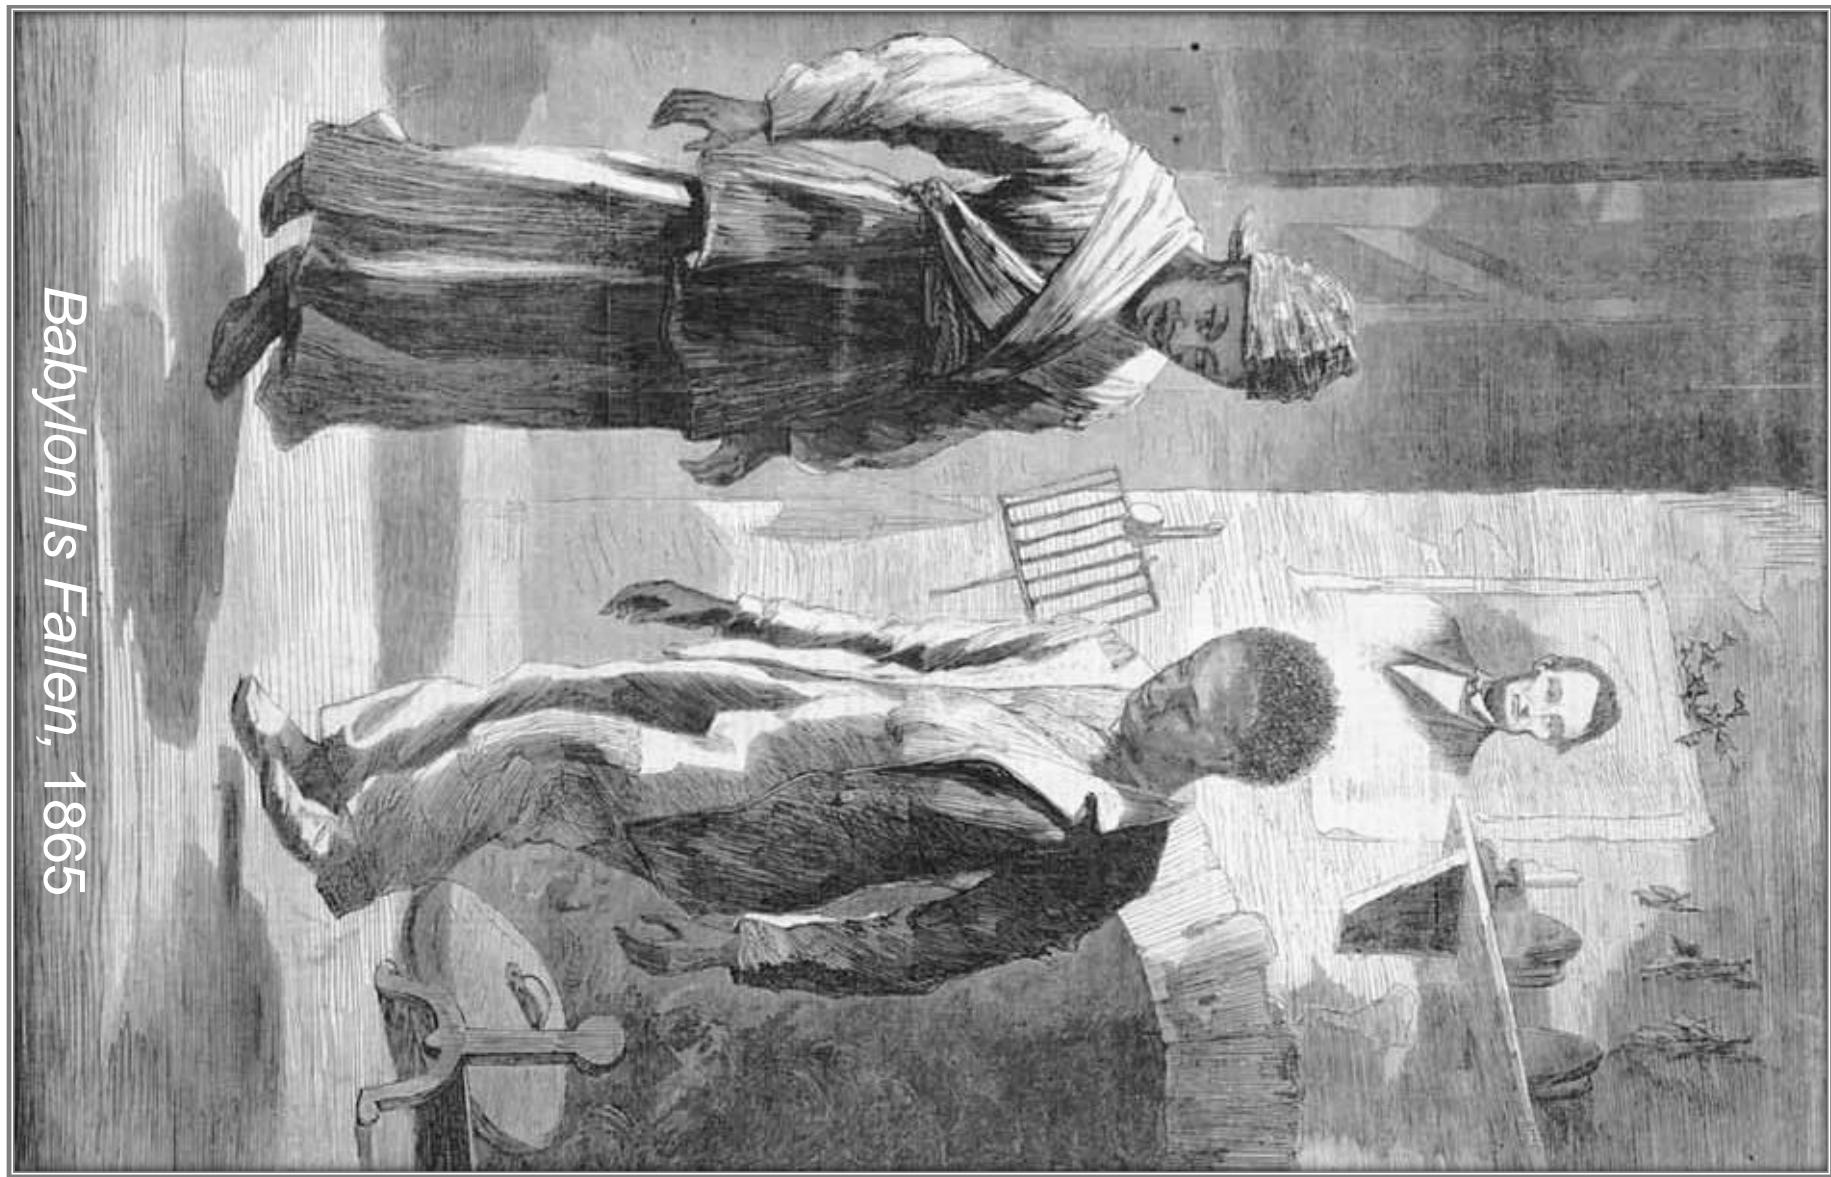

A SMALL GROUP OF UNION SOLDIERS.

Winslow Homer

A Sharpshooter On Picket Duty, 1862

Babylon Is Fallen, 1865

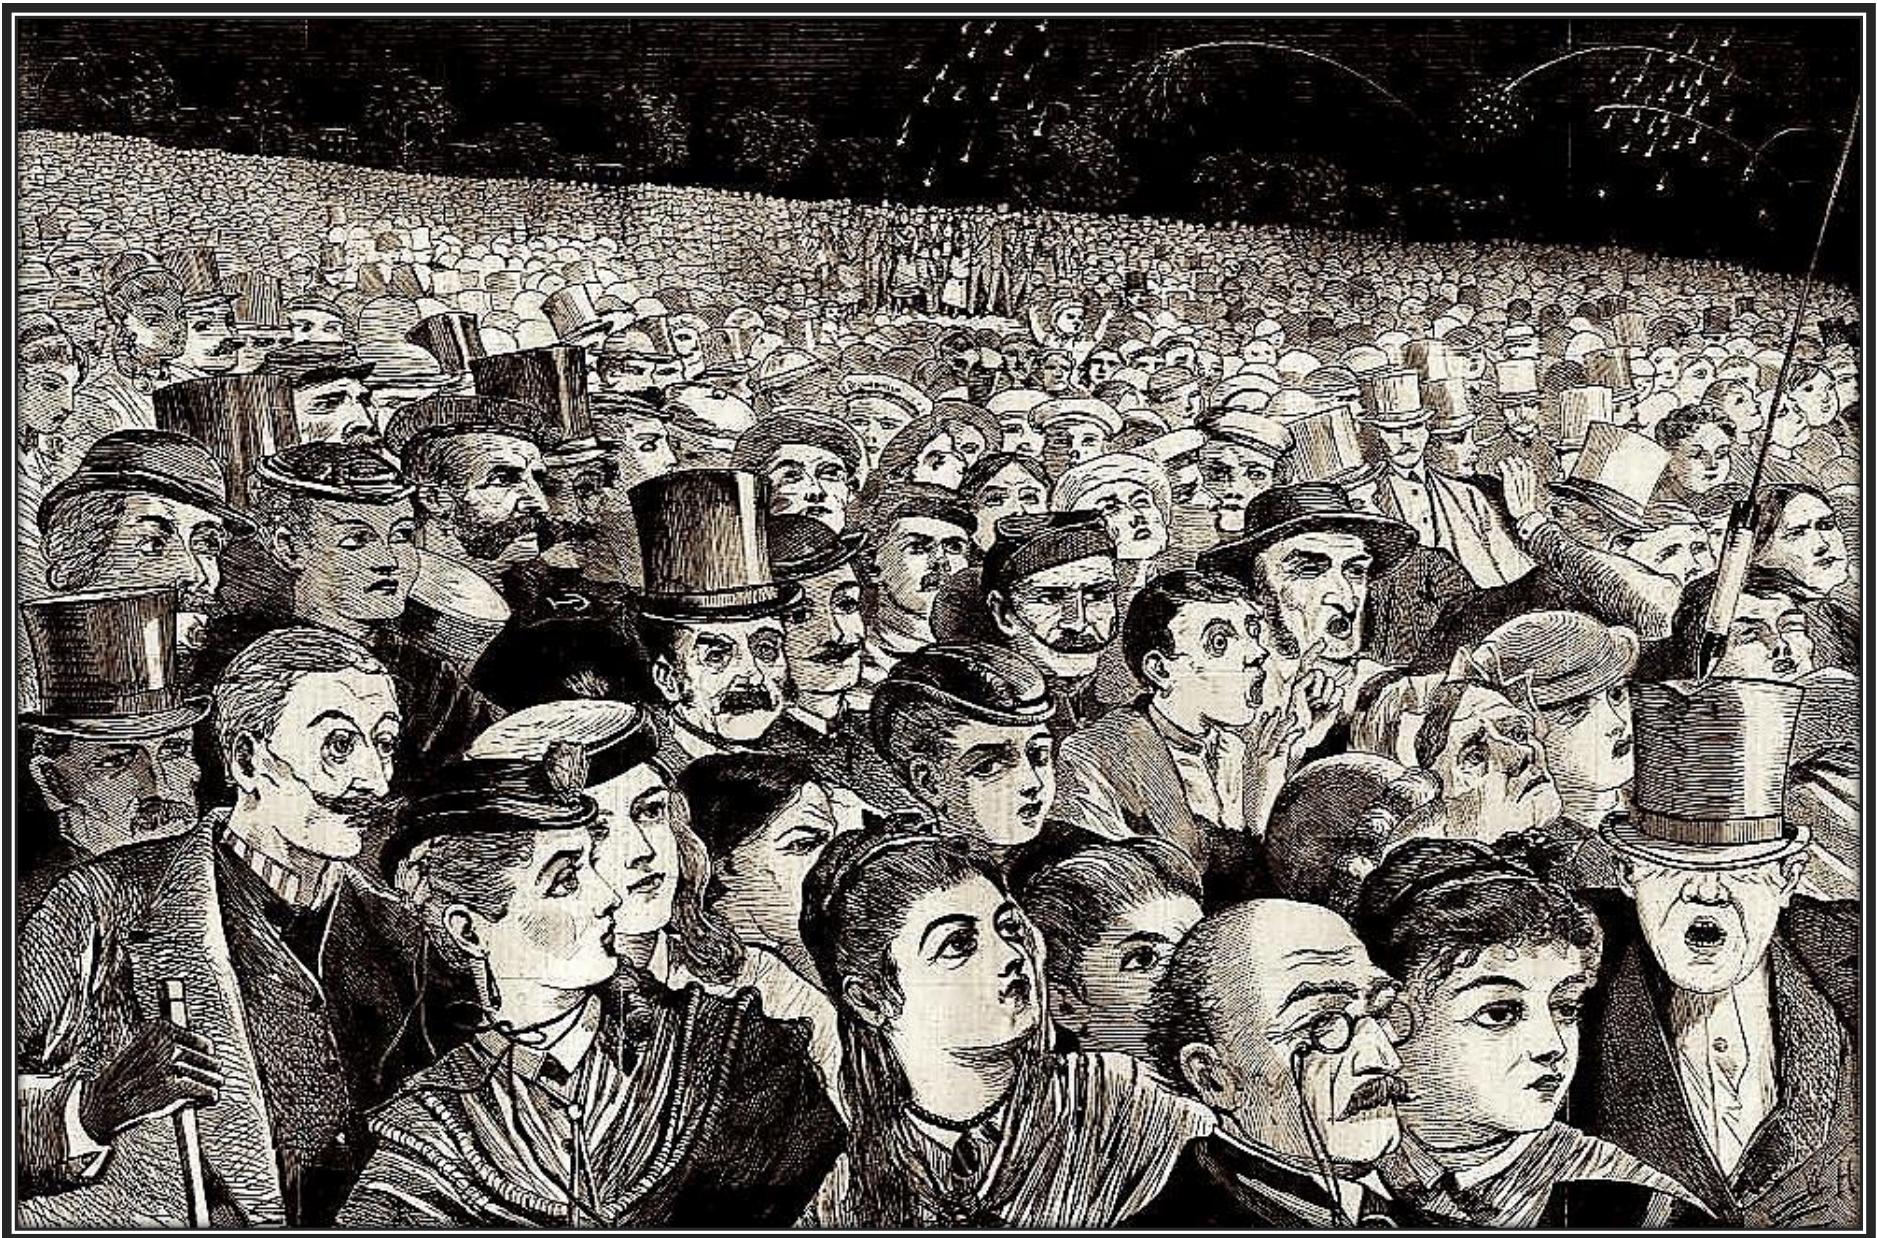

Winslow Homer

A Parisian Ball - Dancing at the Casino.

Published November 23, 1867

Fire Works on the 4th of July, 1868

Winslow Homer

Winslow Homer

Art Students and Copyists in the Louvre Gallery, 1868

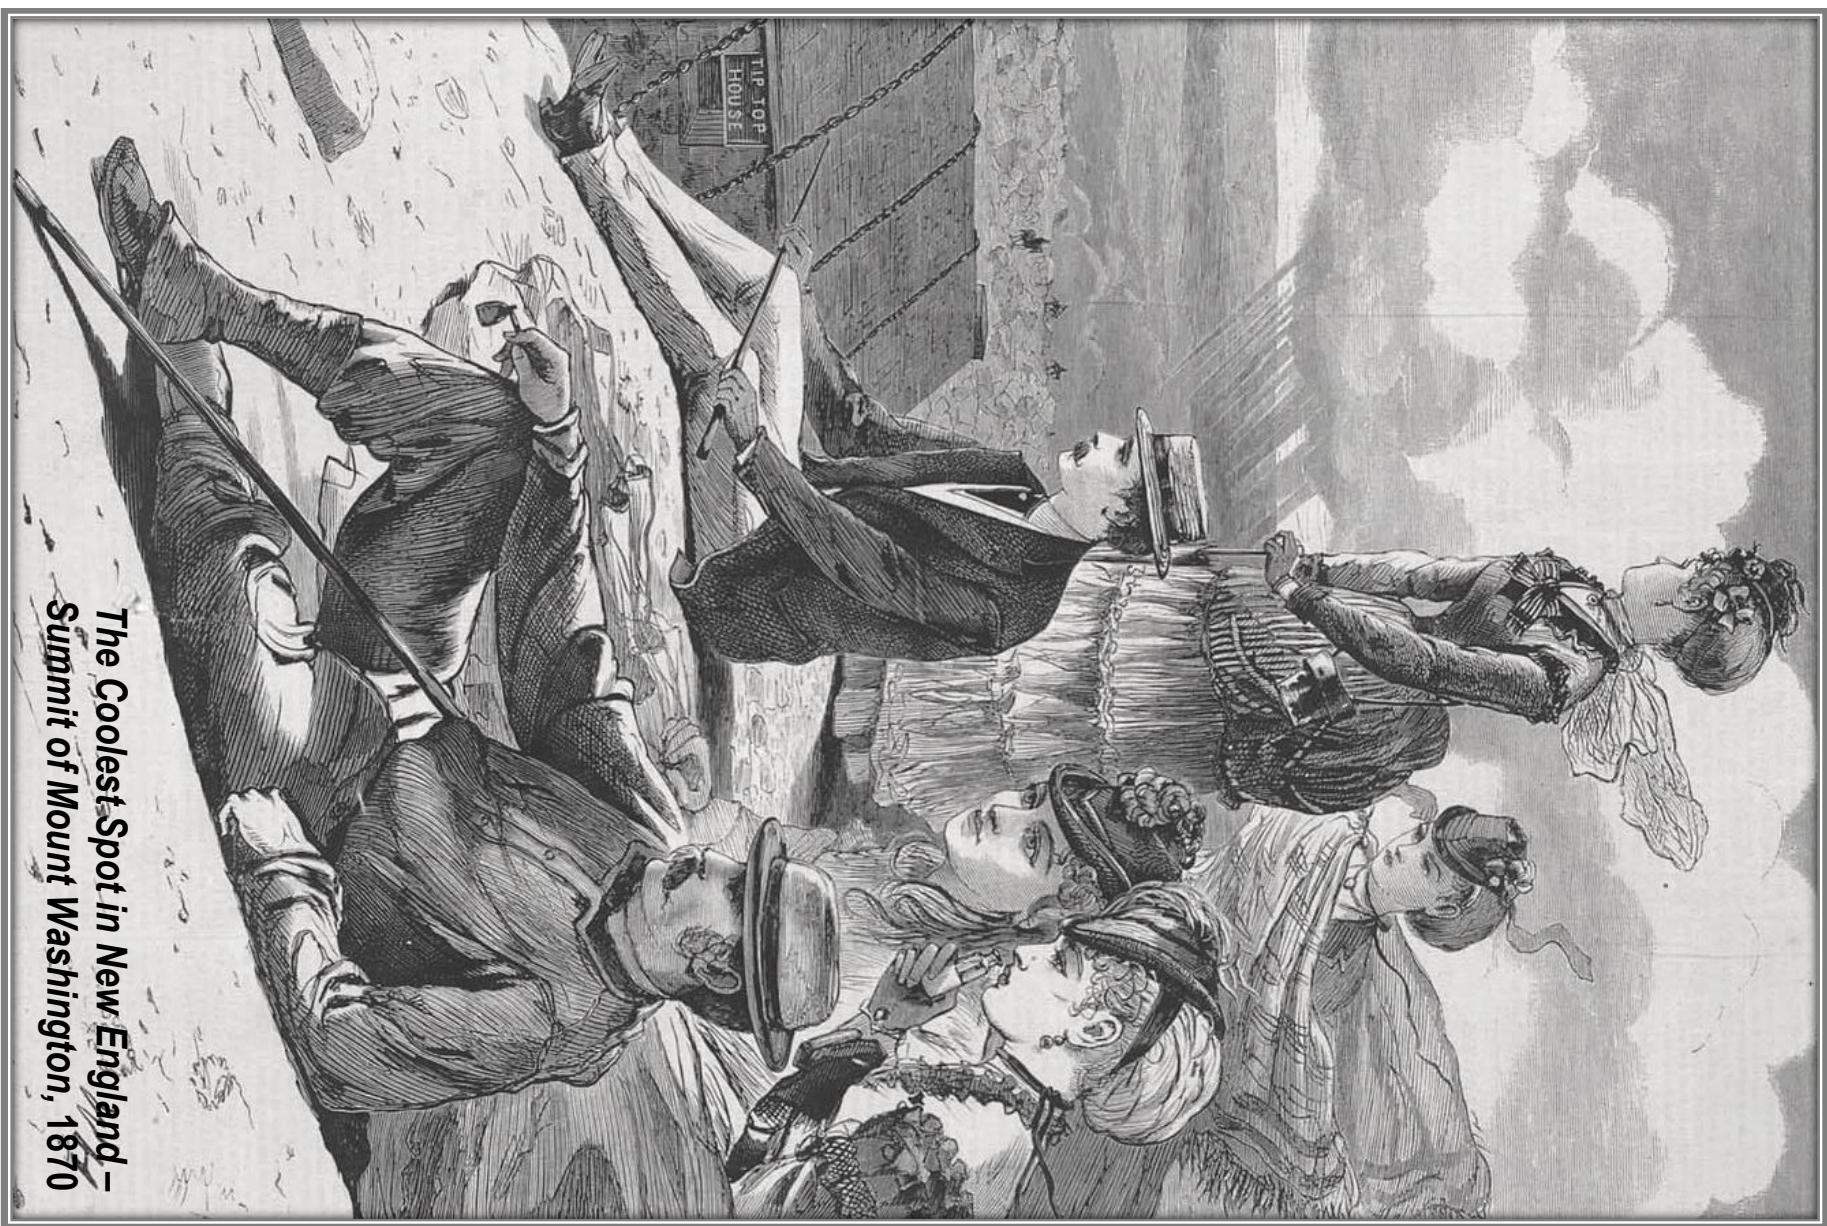

Winslow Homer

The Straw Ride, 1869

Winslow Homer

What Shall We Do Next?

The Coolest Spot in New England -
Summit of Mount Washington, 1870

Winslow Homer

A Quiet Day in the Woods, 1870

Winslow Homer

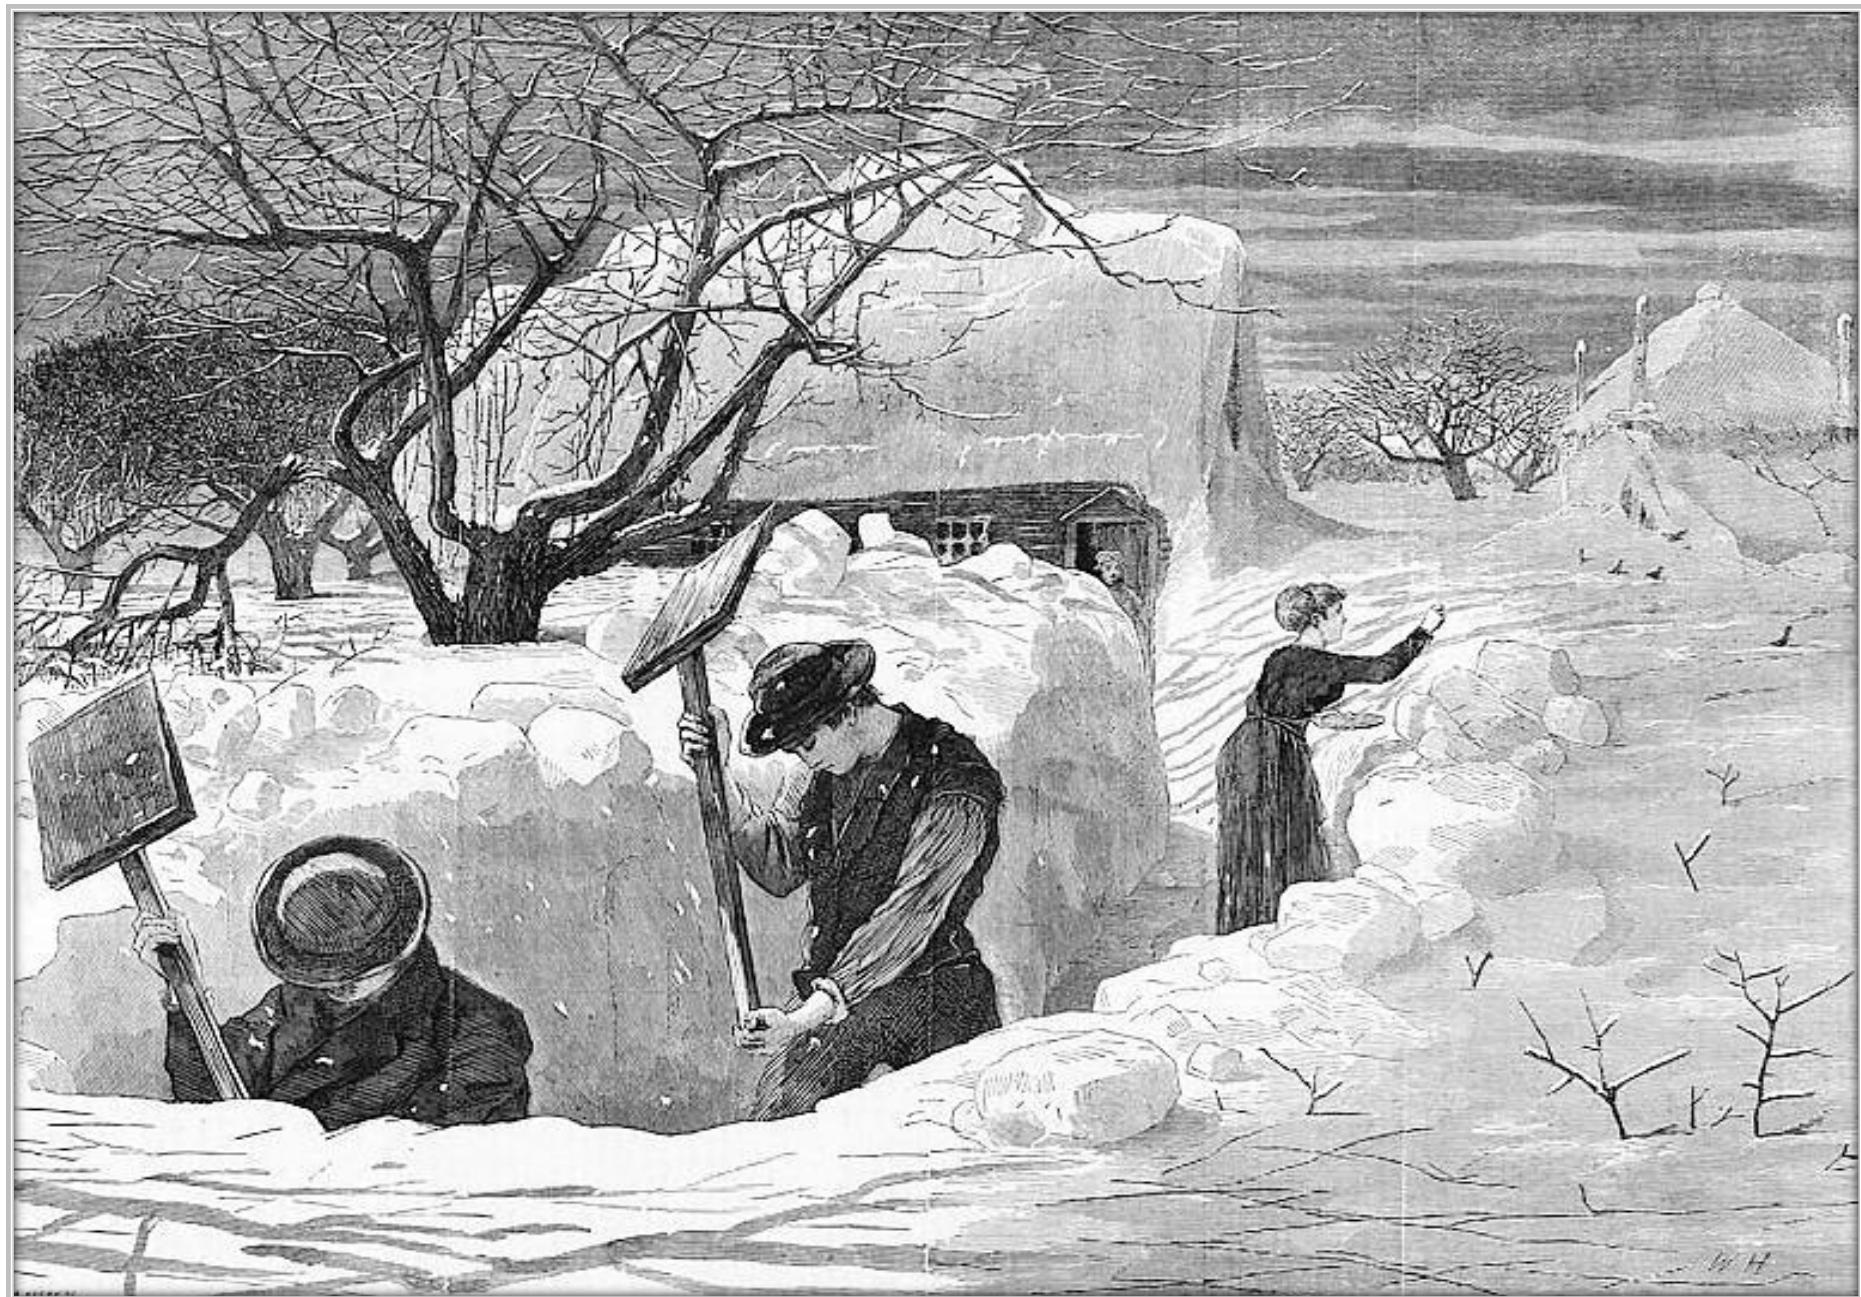

The Robin's Note, 1870

Winslow Homer

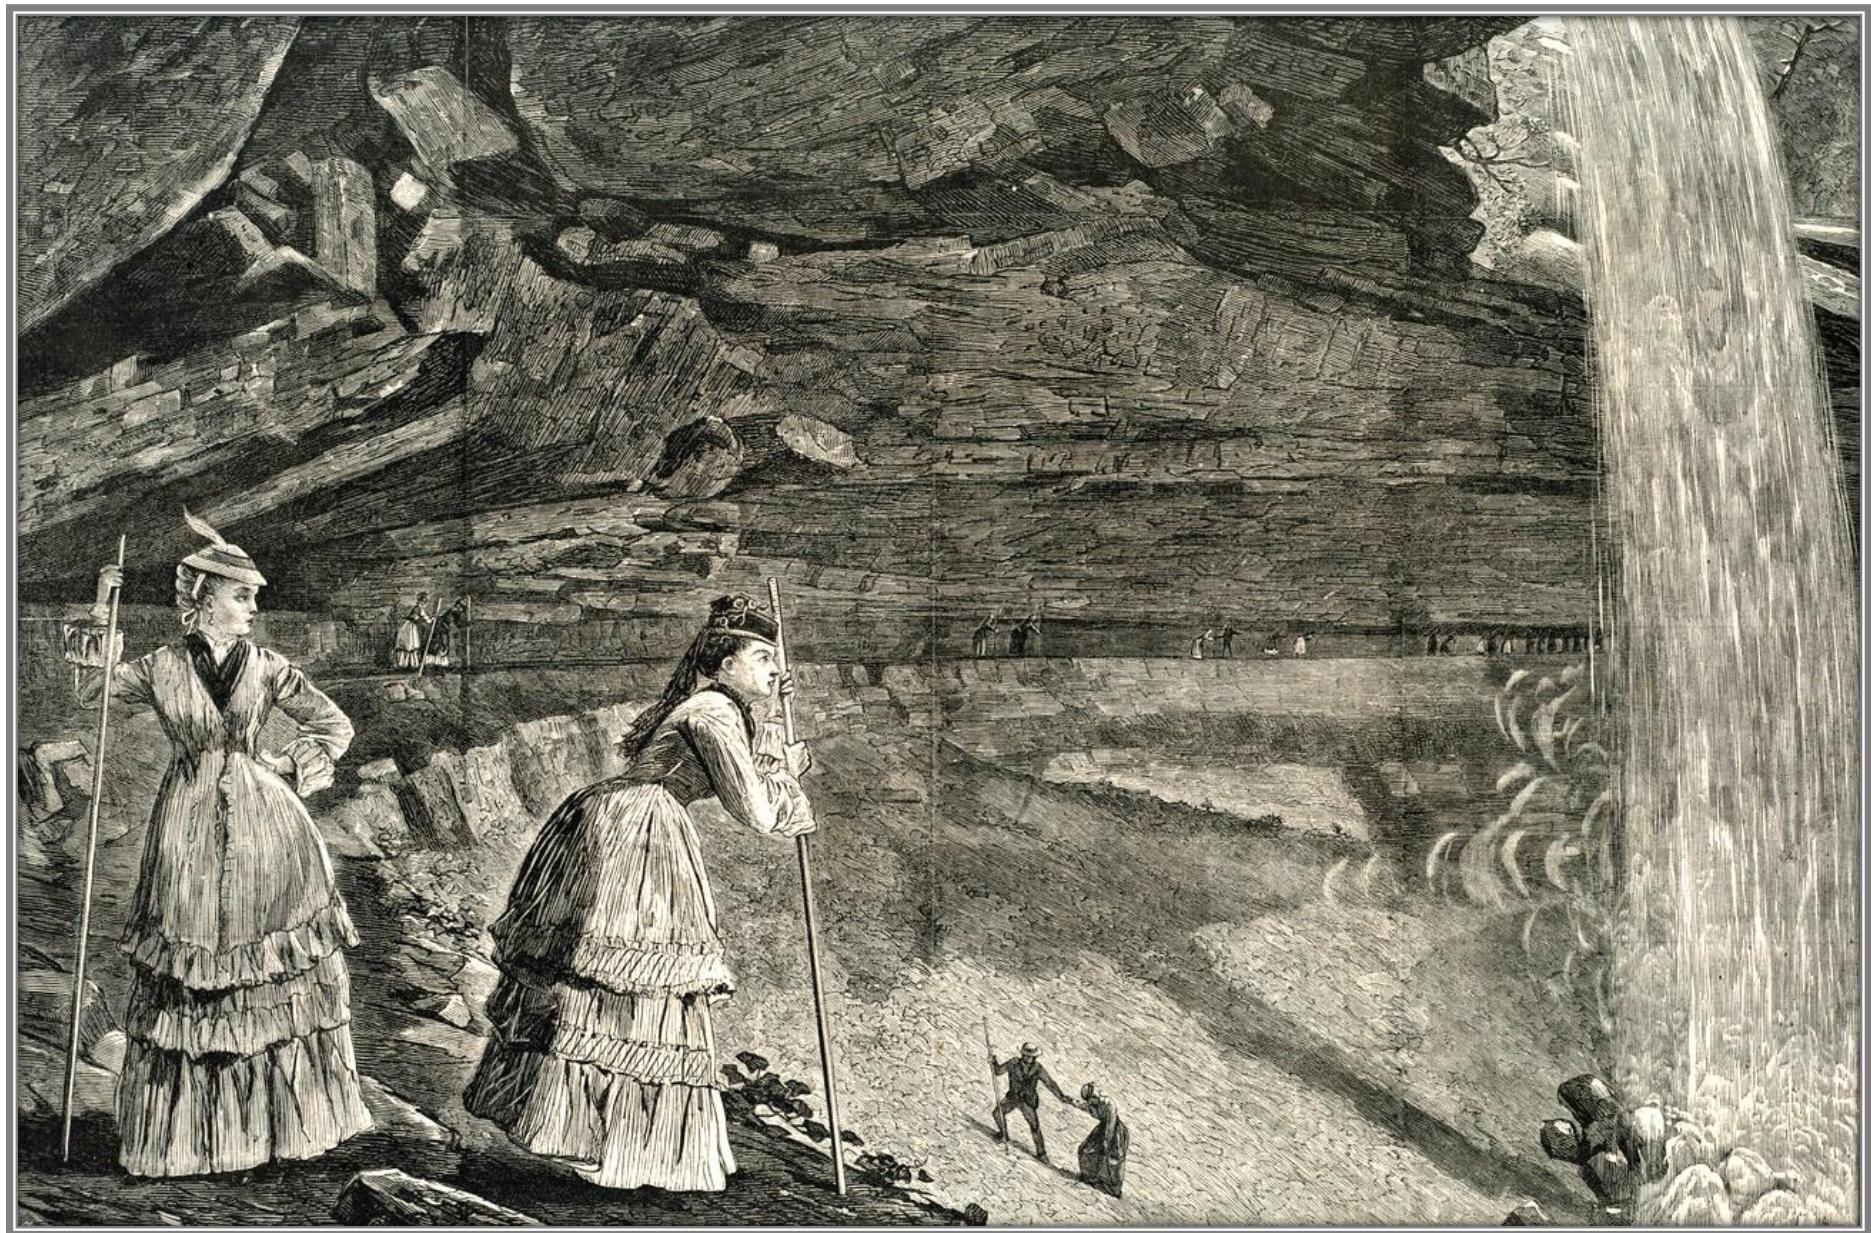

A Country Store – Getting Weighed

Winslow Homer

A Winter's Morning Shoveling Out

Winslow Homer

Under the Falls, Catskill Mountains, 1872

Winslow Homer

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

[JUNE 13, 1874.]

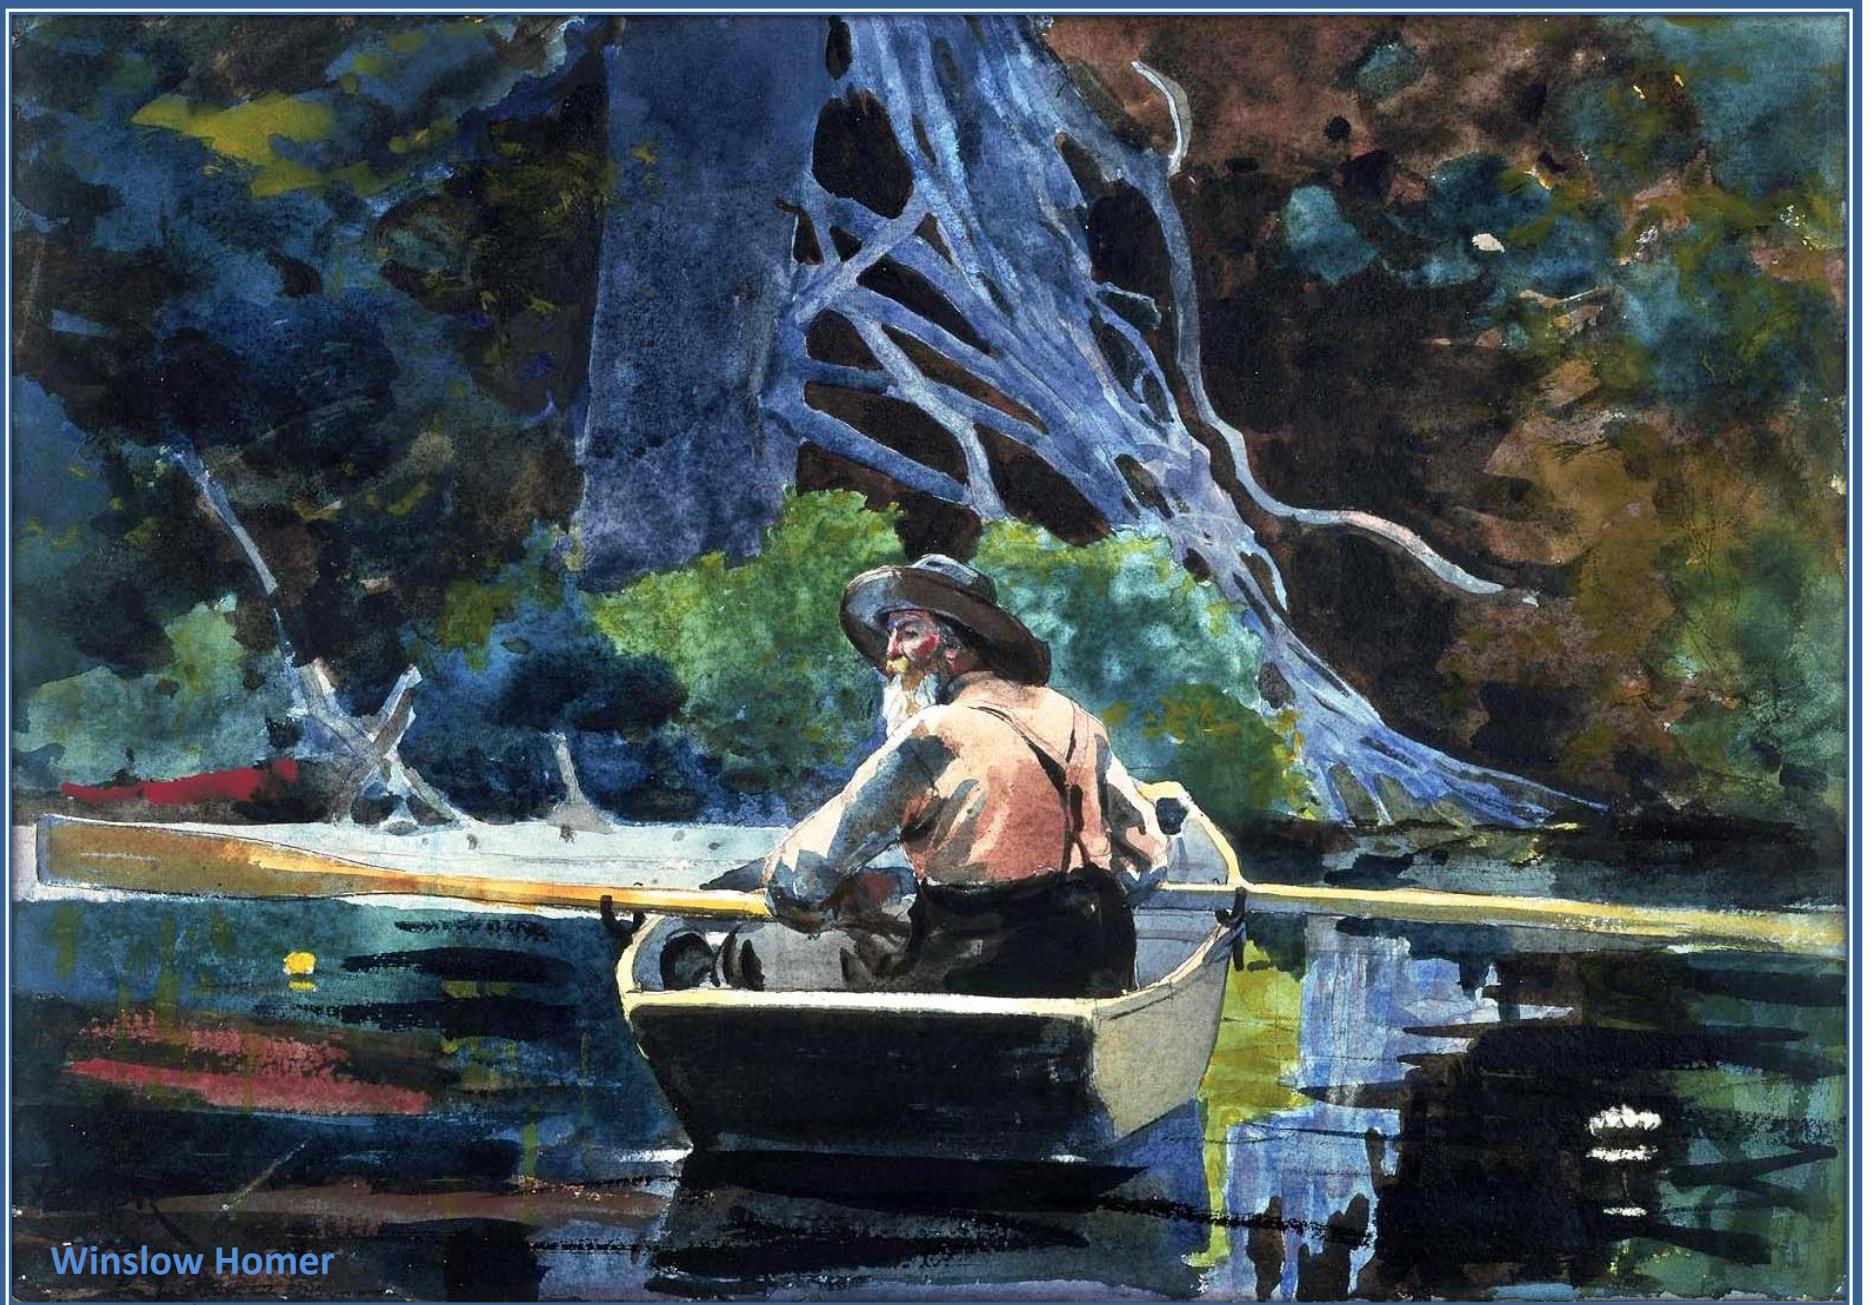

RAID ON A SAND-SWALLOW COLONY—“HOW MANY EGGS?”—[DRAWN BY Winslow Homer.]

Breezing Up, 1876

Winslow Homer

Winslow Homer

The Adirondack Guide, 1894

The Gulf Stream, 1899
Winslow Homer