PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life

PAUL CEZANNE

(say-ZAHN) French 1839-1906

Cezanne is known as the "Father of Modern Art," because he emphasized color and shape over realism. His view of nature through geometric shapes was investigated and imitated in this art project.

ACTIVITY EMPHASIS: Shapes, Still Life